Teesdale Tip Road is an unpleasant name that has negative connotations. I am in favour of renaming.

In Favour or Against Proposal: Against Proposal

Please explain why you are in favour or against the proposal:

Personally I think a better name could be sourced from Teesdale's early history. Quin Yung was a Chinese man who was apart of the construction of the towns water supply in 1883.

Do you have any alternative name suggestions?: Quin Yung Road.

Against .No don't like it. Tippett Road seems more apt, OR should of given residents or our -local school children a competition to find the best road name, would of been great achievement for the winner

Do you have any alternative name suggestions?: Tippett Rd but ask Teesdale school children to name it,

Do you have any alternative name suggestions?: No, lightwood road sounds perfect

Obviously a great idea! Like the name as it blends nicely with those roads around it.
Thoughtfully choice.

- ██████████ ██████████ So we don't want the new residents to know there was once a tip in that area, so rename the road. I don't think so! Name change, by the developer of the land $$ or the real-estate agent $$. The people buying land there would have no idea it was once a tip for rubbish there. Property prices and values on the agenda!

- ██████████ ██████████ It is an appropriate suggestion and the proposed name is appealing with demonstrated links to nearby flora.

- ██████████ ██████████ How about Edge Road? To mark the outer edge of Teesdale. So no more development past that.....

- ██████████ ██████████ Be good to keep as is. What's the purpose of the renaming exactly?

- ██████████ ██████████ Why not just leave it? It's not fancy but it's been that for all my life, and probably all of the generations before me..

I like that name, although it may not mean much to people not interested in local plant species.
I think it's a good idea.
