Enter the world of art amidst a landscape which drives imagination and creativity. Make a weekend adventure by exploring the Golden Plains Arts Trail, visiting wineries and enjoying local produce.

Golden Plains Shire covers a diverse rural area between Geelong and Ballarat in Victoria, Australia. With its scenic goldmining townships, golden fields, green hills and forests, Golden Plains is the shire for quiet lifestyle to inspire creative work.

Golden Plains Arts Trail, now in its third year, is presented by Golden Plains Shire in partnership with the artist community and proudly supported by Turi Foods. The event gives exposure to a wealth of art and craft and builds artist networks as well as community links within Golden Plains Shire and beyond.

Your respect for community properties and private residences is much appreciated.

Directional signs to art venues will be set up on trail days. Look out for a gold flag to identify a venue.

Whilst every effort has been made to help you navigate, it is advised that you have your country road directory with you when touring the Arts Trail.

Please park with care in designated parking areas to avoid blocking traffic.
