Grounds for review

The ability to apply for an internal review is described in Section 22 of the Infringements Act 2006.

Please read and then tick the box for the reason for your application. An application may only be made once per Infringement Notice. If your request is made on other grounds it will not be considered.

Contrary to Law Issued under wrong law.

Mistaken identity Not the person who committed the offence. NB: A vehicle owner is deemed to be the offender unless they provide a statutory declaration naming the person who was in charge of the vehicle.

Special circumstances Persons with a mental or intellectual disability, disorder, disease or illness; a serious addiction to drugs, alcohol or a volatile substance; or are homeless and could not control or understand their offending conduct because of their situation; or proven financial hardship. Note: documented proof to substantiate claim is required.

Exceptional Circumstances Any other circumstances the applicant believe justifies an internal review.
