SUBDIVISIONS ROAD NAMING POLICY

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to provide a consistent and meaningful approach to the naming of roads created by new subdivisions in the Golden Plains Shire Council.
- 1.2 This policy will provide a method of ensuring that newly created roads are named and recorded in accordance with the Naming rules for places in Victoria – Statutory requirements for naming roads, features and localities 2022.
- 1.3 This Policy aligns with Council's Vision and Values to maintain integrity and a commitment to being authentic, honest and ethical in our work.

2. SCOPE

- 2.1 The Golden Plains Shire Council is the naming authority for new roads created under the Subdivision Act 1988. Developers within the Shire are to review this policy in conjunction with the Naming rules before proposing new road names within approved subdivisions.
- 2.2 The Naming rules represent a definitive position in respect to all naming processes; this policy applies only to the naming of roads created under the Subdivision Act 1988. (Council is not responsible for the naming of arterial roads or freeways that are managed by the Department of Transport).

3. POLICY STATEMENT

- 3.1 Golden Plains Shire Council is committed to providing a consistent, meaningful and transparent approach to the naming of new roads as a result of the subdivision process.
- 3.2 This policy is to be used in conjunction with the Subdivisions Road Naming Procedure which sets out the process for the naming of roads as a result of subdivision.
- 3.3 Council has identified the opportunity to collaborate with local first peoples, historical groups and developers specifically within local growth areas to generate ideas and recommendations around particular themes for proposed roads.
- 3.4 Council seeks to preserve and enhance the heritage and identity of Golden Plains Shire through this policy.
 - 3.4.1 Council aims to achieve a balanced representation of:
 1. First peoples cultural heritage and landscape (via consultation with relevant recognised Aboriginal parties).
 2. Significant contributors to the community of all genders and backgrounds with strong regard for Commemorative War and Anzac personnel (who are deceased)
 3. Local flora and fauna

SUBDIVISIONS ROAD NAMING POLICY4. Local historical events, exploration, settlement and prior land use*4. PROCEDURES

- 4.1 Through consultation with local first peoples, community groups and historical societies Council will create a register of suitable road names and themes, with a key focus on townships identified to experience growth.
- 4.2 Council will work collaboratively with developers to ensure they are aware of the register. Council will ensure proposed road names are compliant with the naming rules and this policy.
- 4.3 The approval of any road names will be administered by the subdivision team of Council. The subdivision team will research, collaborate and maintain a register, known as the 'Subdivision Road Name Register' for names and themes deemed most suitable for naming new roads within key growth localities.
- 4.4 A proposed road name is submitted to Council using a road name history form (Appendix 9.1), lodged via SPEAR. This is assessed and approved or refused in SPEAR.

5. RESPONSIBILITIESCompliance, monitoring and review

- 5.1 Council's Manager of Planning and other relevant authorised officers are responsible for implementing this policy.
- 5.2 The policy owner is responsible for ensuring the policy:
- aligns with relevant legislation, government policy and council's requirements/strategies/values.
 - is reviewed to evaluate its continuing effectiveness (E.g., achieves its purpose and remains relevant and current).

Reporting

- 5.3 No additional reporting is required.

Records Management

- 5.4 Council must maintain all records relevant to administering this policy in accordance with the Public Records Act 1973.

6. POLICY GUIDELINES

- 6.1 The naming of any new roads within a subdivision will occur in accordance with delegated authority.
- 6.2 Only road name applications made in accordance with Naming rules for places in Victoria and the Subdivision Road Name procedure will be considered.
- 6.3 All other road naming or alterations to existing road names are dealt with by Council's Governance unit.
- 6.4 Council will give preference to names or themes identified within the Subdivisions
