Rokewood and Corindhap will play starring roles in a new episode of ABC TV's 'Back Roads' program, screening at 8pm, Monday 22 June.

The now famous farm fit YouTube video made by members of the Rokewood Corindhap Football and Netball Club caught the attention of ABC producers. In April, the crew and host Lisa Millar spent a week filming the townspeople for a great story about the value of local sporting and community groups in supporting and connecting people in our small towns, particularly in challenging times such as the COVID-19 pandemic.

Don't miss this special opportunity to watch the towns and people of Rokewood and Corindhap celebrated on national television!

Following the premiere screening, the Rokewood/Corindhap episode of 'Back Roads' will be available at iview.abc.net.au/show/back-roads
