

STAGE ONE OF THE BANNOCKBURN HEART IS NOW OPEN FOR SUMMER!

The Shire's first water play space with splash pads for toddlers and older children will operate from morning to evening, seven days a week over the summer holidays.

The Heart has accessible play elements and DDA compliant toilets, making it a regional destination for people with disabilities and their families.

Stage One of the Bannockburn Heart Precinct also includes adventure play space, active recreation equipment; and community facilities including public toilets, seating, BBQs, shade lighting and landscaped community space.

For free family fun this holiday season, come along to the corner of Milton and Byron Streets and discover a summer of fun at the Heart.

MEREDITH COMMITTEE INCORPORATED MEETING

A public meeting to nominate persons for appointment to the Meredith Racecourse and Recreation Reserve Committee Incorporated for the term of three (3) years is to be held at the Meredith Community Hub, 4 Russell Street Meredith on Tuesday 14 January commencing at 8pm. Residents are encouraged to attend this important meeting.
